Tons & Tons of NEW GOODS

have been pouring into our Store and Warehouses the past few weeks Ex. barks "Paul Isenberg" and "J. C. Pfuger" from Europe, and the different steamers and sailing vessels from San Francisco. Our stocks of heavy goods, such as Black and Galvanized Chain, Galvanized Sheet Iron, Sheet Zinc, Pig Lead, Sheet Lead, Lead Pipe, Lump Chalk, Shot, Bar Iron, Etc., has never been so large and complete as it is to-day. Fence Wire—Our stock on 4-5-6 black and 4-5-6-9-12 galvanized is very large, and we claim it is as fine a lot of wire as ever came to the country. However, we don't ask you to take our word for it if you don't wish to, just come in and we will let you cut a piece off of any coil and put it in our big vise upstairs and you can twist it, bend it, tie knots in it, and test it to your heart's content, and alter you have done this and asked the price of it, you will be pretty sure to buy some.

Galvanized Buckets and Tubs, Sauce Pans, Tea Kettles, Ball Bluing, Crown Soft Soap, Fine Clay and Day & Martin's Shoe Blacking we have plenty of now, and our stock of Galvanized Flexible Steel and Iron Wire Rope is complete from 3/4 to 4 inches. Hubbuck Boiled and Raw Linseed and Castor Oil, White Lead and Zinc, Red Lead and Oxide, Colza Oil and Stockholm Tar, all came by the "Isenberg" in fine order and are offered at low prices. Now is the time to have your Coffin trimmed: the hundred sets of "Coffin Furniture" just received are going off like "hot cakes." The new "Pumping Plant" works well and you can get all the water you want, so you want one of our new Lawn Sprinklers. It is the best Sprinkler ever sold here, no parts to wear out, as it does not revolve, and is good for either light or heavy pressure of water.

Electrical Goods.—Our stock is more complete than ever, and we have five men hard at work wiring houses for Electric Lights. We can furnish you the fixtures, shades and lamps in any style, and if we wire your house you can feel sure it is done according to the latest Underwriters' rules. Game is said to be plenty. We have the right kind of Schütz, Wood, or Black Powder Cartridges to get big bags with.

GROVER SCORED.
What the People Think of His Hawaiian Policy.

This is the crowning blunder and infamy of American diplomacy.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Restoring a queen to a throne is queer kind of business for a new American navy.—New York Recorder.

Mr. Cleveland is in imminent danger of making himself criminally ridiculous in Hawaii.—St. Louis Chronicle.

This is not Americanism, nor is it an expression of the principles of the Democratic party; but so it is.—N. Y. Sun.

Every decent American ought to feel ashamed of his President, for his Hawaiian policy furnishes the most humiliating spectacle.—Cleveland Leader.

Our Government would become ridiculous if it continued force for the maintenance of a monarchy in the Sandwich Islands.—St. Louis Republic.

Fat Grover Cleveland seems to have a particular hatred toward the American flag. He pulls it down whenever he gets an opportunity.—St. Joe Herald.

It would be a stupendous and unprecedented blunder for the United States to set up a monarchy by virtue of its own dictum.—Pittsburg Dispatch (Ind. Rep.)

How Mr. Cleveland can now ask the Dole Government to step down and give place to the deposed Queen is one of the things past finding out.—Leavenworth Times.

It would be absurd for this Republic to re-establish a throne once overthrown, and its overthrow seemingly acquiesced in by the people.—New York World.

Mr. Cleveland has not been frank with the United States for a new Hawaii, in this or any step he has taken in dealing with the Hawaiian overtures.—N. Y. Tribune.

The Hawaiian policy of the Cleveland administration is opposed to the history, the diplomacy, the traditions, the patriotism and pride of the American people.—Utica Herald.

If the course suggested by Secretary Gresham is followed, this Government will look about for some small hole into which it can crawl and hide its head.—Baltimore American.

It is difficult to understand upon what tenable grounds rests the pretensions that the United States should continue an interference with the Government of Hawaii.—Buffalo Times.

Two wrongs never made one right, and to repeat Minister's blunder of interfering in Hawaii would be to risk doing vastly more mischief than good.—Springfield Republican.

The native Hawaiians are no more to be trusted with the control of the Government of Hawaii than are the native Apaches with the control of the Government of Arizona.—Philadelphia Record.

There is a division of sentiment among Americans as to whether we should annex Hawaii, but hardly any as to whether the corrupt Liliuokalani should be restored as Queen.—Washington Star.

The Concord has known the American people for a good many years. Its belief is that they will not take kindly to Mr. Cleveland's Hawaiian policy as now divulged after the elections.—Harford Courant.

Of course we agree with Secretary Gresham that if a "great wrong" has been done, it must be righted. But we have not yet become satisfied that there has been done by our Government any wrong.—Richmond Dispatch.

The President has set on foot what has been properly characterized as "a public crime of startling import," involving the destruction of a republic and the restoration of a deposed monarchy.—N. Y. Mail and Express.

The crowning infamy of the forcible restoration of the Queen to her fortified throne completed this shameful chapter of history. It will damn Cleveland and Gresham to a common immortality of disgrace.—Brooklyn Daily Times.

It is the first time in American history that the power of the Republic has ever been used to force a Monarchical yoke upon a people who have once won their independence. It is an act of national self-stultification.—Boston Journal.

President Cleveland has taken a bold course in offering to restore the native dynasty to the throne of the Hawaiian Islands, and this country may be involved in very serious complications before the affair is over.—Providence Journal.

What will the President order the navy to do if the Hawaiians refuse to accept the Queen that he has selected for them? Will he fight for her dusky Majesty? When it comes to levying war Congress will have a say.—Fort Worth, Texas, Gazette.

The people are seldom wrong in their general verdict, and their verdict in the present case is that the position of the Secretary of State is not yet sufficiently fortified by conclusive evidence, and that it is not in accord with good policy.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Can it be possible that American guns are being prostituted to set up the rule of vice and ignorance over that of enlightenment and progress and to surround a half-civilized Kanaka woman with the monkey show of a preposterous monarchy?—N. Y. Tribune.

Now that the country has grasped the full meaning and intent of the Administration with regard to Hawaii, there is likely to be an outburst of popular indignation that will awaken President Cleveland and his advisers to a realization of their gigantic mistake.—Troy Times.

White men are sure to control those islands, which are so sure to become an appendage or an integral part of some great Power. Shall that Power be American or not? Shall Honolulu become an American port and fort, or pass into alien or hostile hands?—New York Sun.

Congress has to be heard from. We are mistaken if there be not a strong element in the Democratic majority that will protest alike against the President's usurpation of imperial power and of his un-American policy in the restoration of a barbarous monarchy.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Fancy the President of a republic using the power and influence of that republic to restore a queen to a throne from which she was deposed by a peaceful rebellion of her subject! A greater anomaly cannot be found in the libretto of a comic opera.—Chicago Commercial.
